Saturday, July 2. 1720.

Lisbon, June 23.

THE Feſtival of Corpus Domini has been celebrated with as great Magnificence as ever; beſides the uſual Proceſſion, there was in the Evening a great Cavalcade of ſeveral Perſons on Horſeback in Masks: But the Rain which fell that Day, has done great Damage to the rich Hangings and Tapiſtry with which the Streets were adorned. On Sunday laſt the 16th Inſtant, the King of Portugal and the two Infantes aſſiſted at an Auto da Fé, held by the Inquiſitors: The Relation printed here by Authority, of the Criminals brought out of the Priſon of the Inquiſition, with the Sentences pronounced on them, is verbatim as follows:

A Liſt of the Perſons that came out (of the Priſon of the Inquiſition,) of their Condemnations, and of the Sentences that were read at the Publick Act of Faith, which was celebrated in the Church of the Convent of St. Domingo, in the City of Weſt Lisbon, on Sunday the 16th of June, 1720; the Inquiſitor General being the moſt Eminent and moſt Reverend Lord Nuno da Cunha, Cardinal Presbyter of the Holy Church of Rome, and Councellour of State to his Majeſty.
